As We

Memory lane brings many happy incidents to the graduating class of 1959. Looking into the past, we recall the year 1955 — the halls of CHS echoed with the yells of 65 green Freshmen, eager to learn the ways of high school life. Mr. Fields and Miss Faison, bravely and courageously, guided anxious scholars in the selection of scholastic and extracurricular activities.

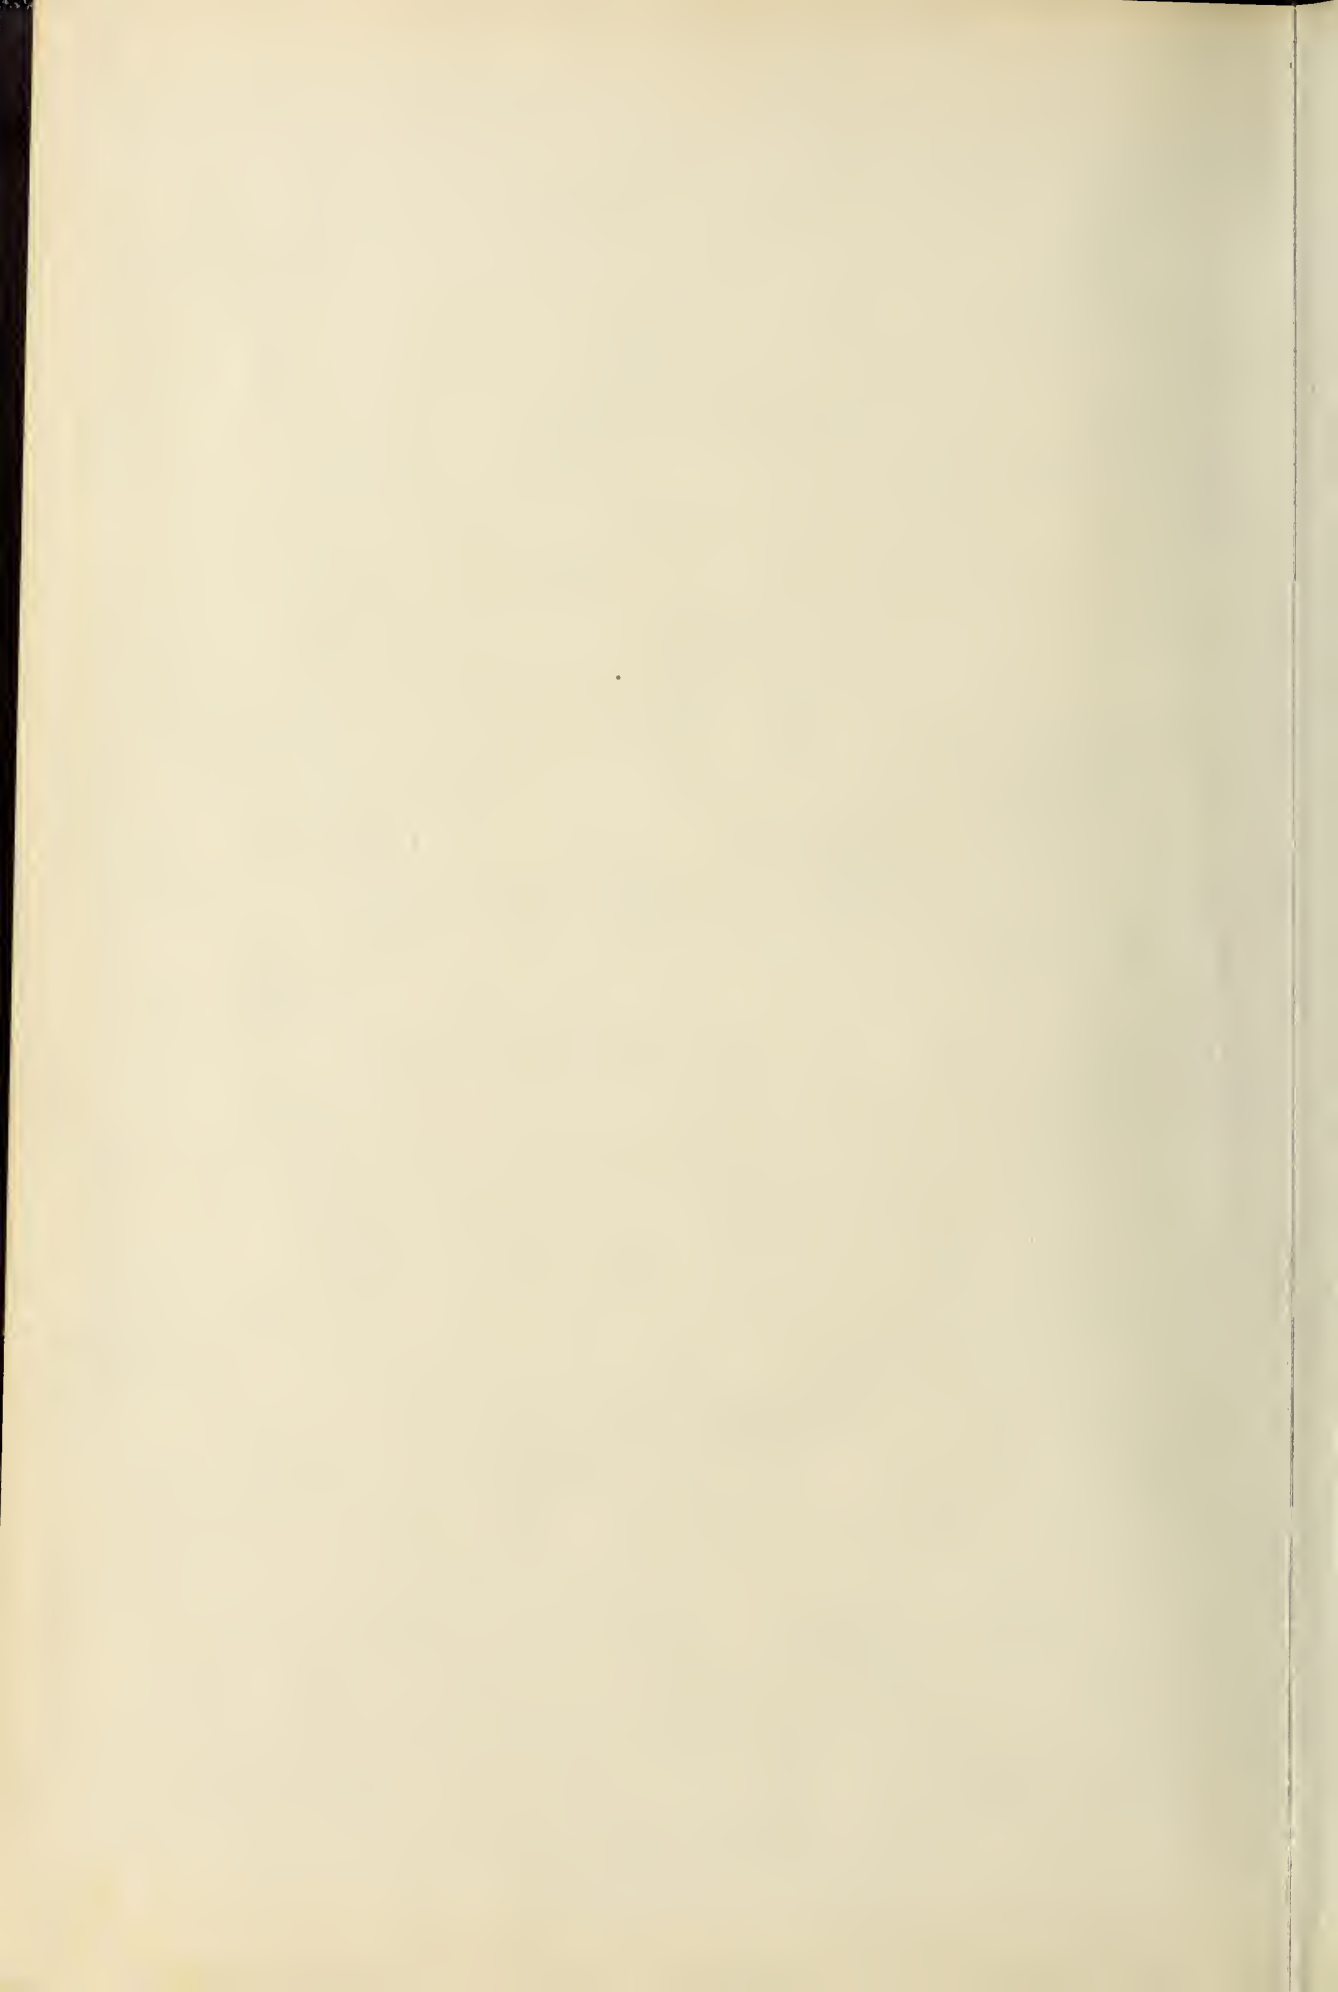

Swiftly the year passed and 60 Sophomores were entrusted in the care of Mr. Hankins and Mr. Vinson. By a successful Sock Hop, the treasury of the class was somewhat increased. Many members of our class began to exhibit great ability on the football field and the basketball court.

As jolly Juniors, we faced the tremendous responsibility of entertaining the seniors. Plans and projects successfully attempted brought the necessary means to give the Junior-Senior banquet and prom with the theme, Oriental Gardens. This memorable night will long remain as an outstanding accomplishment of this class.

Remember . . .

Miss MacMillian, our homeroom teacher, gave us the support, leadership, and continual encouragement that helped bring us praise for our presentation of the junior play, "The Case of Springtime."

*P*roudly we accepted the long worked for title — Seniors — a title which means in our school publishing a yearbook, presenting a play, and attempting various projects in order to make the trip to New York. With Miss Sumrell as homeroom teacher, our class soon found that our numerous expectations had become realities. The thought — The Greatest Awards are Sometimes Found in the Smallest Jobs — might apply to our activities this year. Our class now only 29 in number has cooperated in each task, large or small. Distorting one of Shakespeare's familiar quotations, we proudly say: "Life may be a walking shadow depending upon the players; though they strut and fret their hour upon the stage — they can be heard even as they depart — and the sound of applause gives way to a final adieu."

CLAYTON HIGH SCHOOL
Clayton, North Carolina

To you, the students and faculty of Clayton High, the '59 Clahischo staff leaves the sad, thrilling, and happy setting of an unforgettable year. Without you the Clahischo would be only a blank and empty book. Turning the pages of this most prized book in the future years will be the happy reward of the many long and enjoyable hours spent in producing this monument of 1959. We have been bound together by love, joy, and hope into one great family of students. The smiles and sorrows have kept us closer united as we have traveled along life's strenuous journey. We hope that everyone receives as much from this book as we, the staff---

"Look not into the Past... It comes not again...
Wisely improve the Present... It is thine... Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear,
and a manly heart."

Dedication

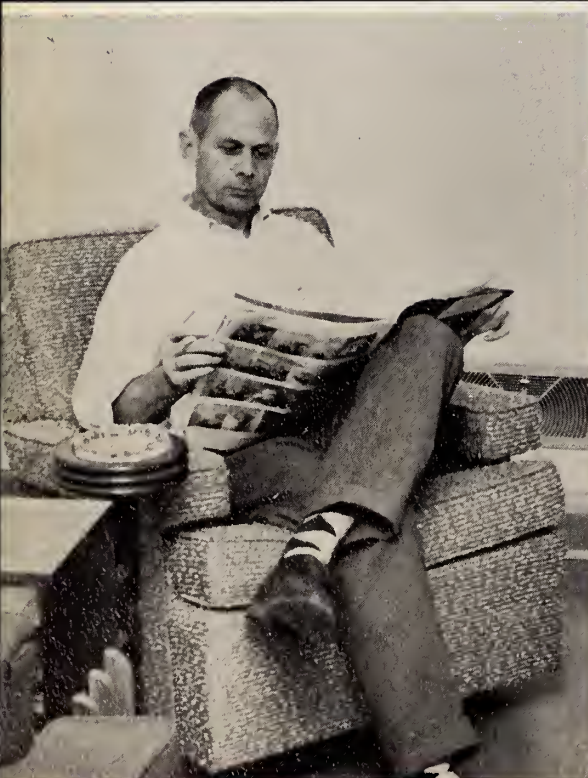

Memories of one, who has won the respect of his students fellow teachers, and citizens of Clayton, will long remain a shining inspiration.

Because he has met each duty faithfully, because he has shown in his teaching the importance of love for one's fellow man, and because he has exemplified in his every act of conduct the traits of a true gentleman in all of its meaning, we the senior class of 1959 humbly, sincerely, and lovingly dedicate to Winfred Sorrell, this XII edition of the Clahischo yearbook.

"His knowledge hid from public gaze,
He did not bring to view;
Nor made a noise town-meeting days,
As many do."

"Born for success he seemed
With grace to win, with heart to hold,
With shining gifts that took all eyes."

"There's no place like home."

"Paradise itself were dim
And joyless, if not shared with him!"

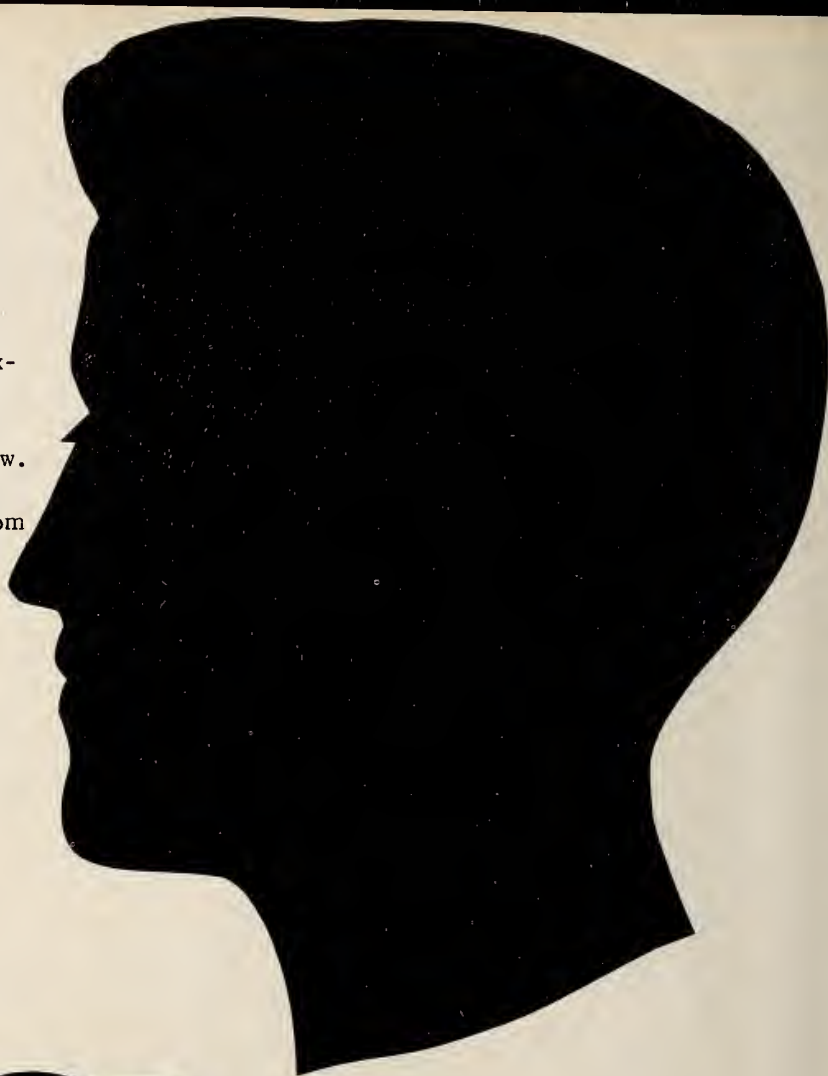

MR. WINFRED SORRELL

In Appreciation to Our Parents . . .

As we the seniors are about to depart from the shelter and love of our parents, we pause to express our deep appreciation to you, mom and dad.

Through the years we have accomplished many things to prepare us for the world of tomorrow. Never could we have reached these goals if it had not been for you. Many times we have strayed from the narrow road of life, but who was there to take our hand and guide us back, yes, you - mom and dad.

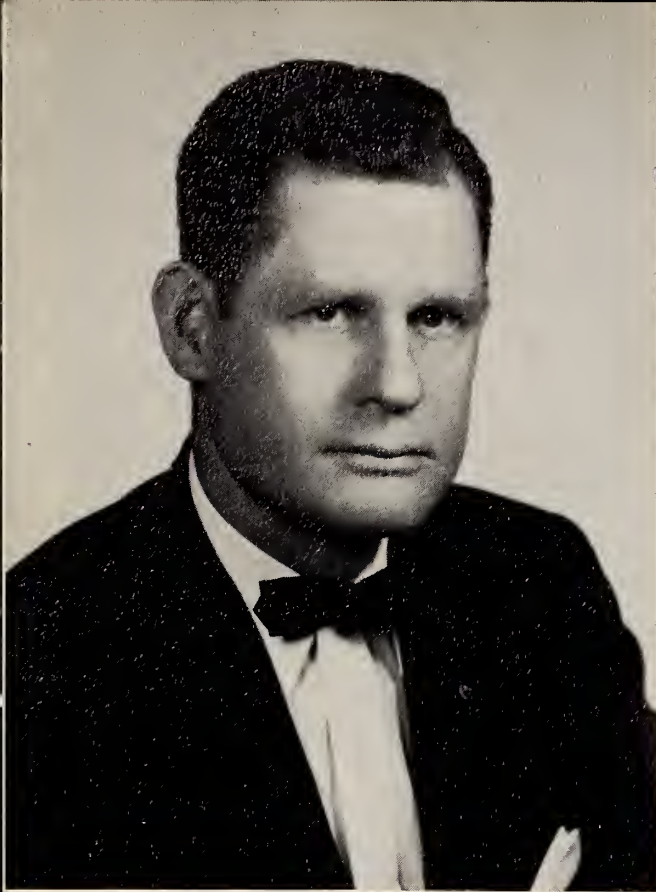

Now the time has come for us to make our own lives and happiness. But never fear because even though we do not have you at our side to direct our path we will always have the inspiration of your life to lead us. When we go out to face the world, we will remember all of the wise words of wisdom that you have told us so many times but did not understand the meaning of them then. Now as we, your sons and daughters, the seniors of '59, prepare for our lives, we can hardly express our appreciation to you, our parents, for your dedicated love, your understanding, and your constant leadership.

"May you always continue your present thirst for knowledge, joy of doing, and enthusiasm for living.

May you always possess the courage to face hardships, the wisdom to solve problems, and the faith to overcome obstacles; and may your heart be filled with joy of serving, the peace of forgiving, and the happiness of loving mankind.

May you always give your best and may the best always come to you in return."

To the Seniors:

"It has been a real pleasure to have shared with you in your joys and sorrows during your four years at Clayton High. Your cooperative attitude, your kindness toward others, and your desire to complete your public school education will contribute to your happiness in later life.

I will always remember each of you, and I wish for you all of the joys that life has to offer. The years ahead will not always be easy. I hope that each of you will make every effort to continue with your education, so that you may be prepared to shoulder the responsibilities of adulthood and living in a world which needs your potentialities."

Clahischo

The members of the Clahischo annual staff have experienced one of the great accomplishments of any staff---organizing and editing a creditable yearbook. The hours, which seemed very long and tiring at one time, now seem very precious in the chest of happy memories. By co-operation our staff has reached its goal---we are proud to receive any praise deservingly ours!

Feature Editor, Barbara Nappier, and Photography Manager, Bobby Norris, carefully plan the layout sheets, for the feature section.

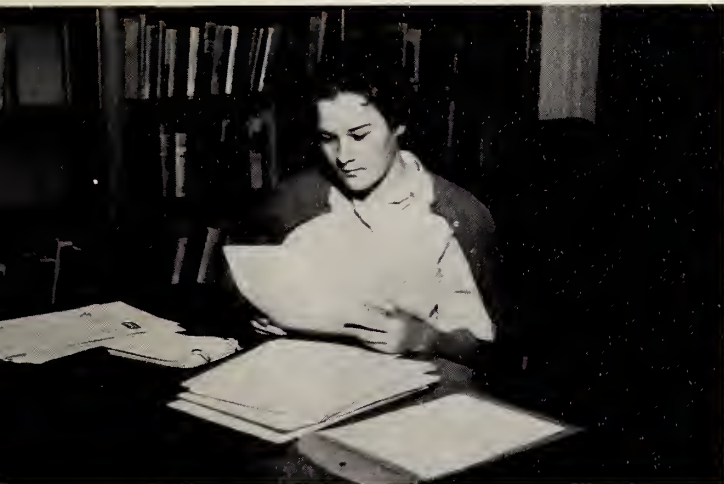

Art Editors - Gwenda Cobb, Jimmy Benson, Wayne Benson - draw spot designs.

Subscription Managers, Carolyn Johnson and Joyce Underwood, are proud to give out Clahischo's.

Annual Staff

Assistant Editor, Patricia Adams, is busy checking the layout sheets.

Business Managers, Faye Massengill and assistant, Clarence Davis, are balancing the budget.

Sports Editors - Mary Ellen Lee and Sherwood Davis - get the sport section of the paper to find new ideas for the sports section.

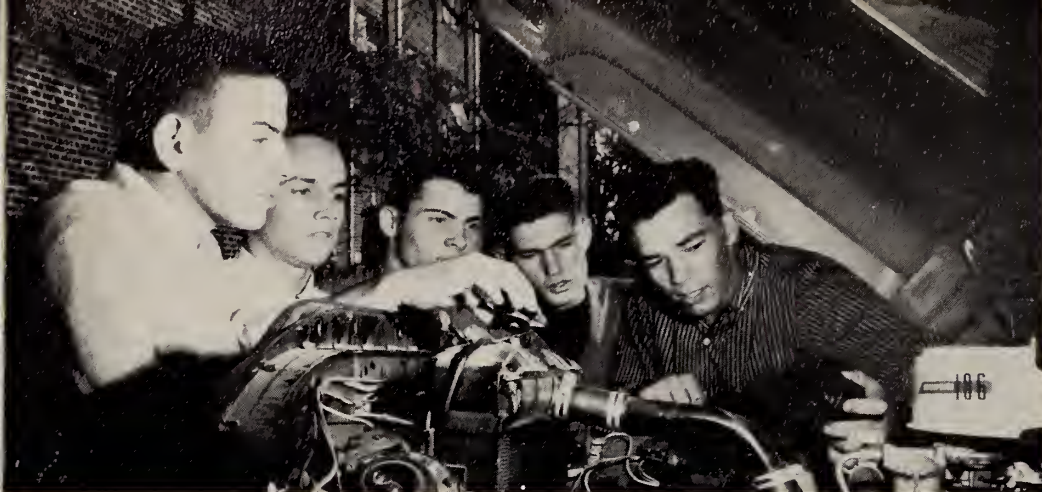

Sponsor, Miss Alyce Sumrell, proofreads one of the last copy sheets.

Advertising Staff - Patsy Wall, Jimmy Benson, and Wayne Benson - discuss the number of ads sold this year.

N o n

Bus Drivers - Shelton Jones, Sherrill Capps, Earl Johnson, Wayne Benson, and Claude Greene - inspect the motor of a bus-to be sure it is in excellent running condition.

Student Council

The Student Council promotes stronger ties between the students and their co-workers. The members have the qualities of outstanding character, leadership, and integrity. The Council makes laws to govern the fire drills, lunchroom order and other problems that might arise. Working readily together the members sponsor a Christmas Dance and a Spring Dance which are thoroughly enjoyed by the high school students. The organization is made up of representatives who are elected by the homerooms. Officers are selected by popular vote of student body.

Wayne Benson, President; talks with Freshman class about high school policies especially those applying to fire drills and lunch room procedures.

Student Council directs monthly fire drills as students cooperate in following policies of school.

They Succeed and They Alone Who Have Striven — Aldrich.

Beta Club Officers discuss money making projects for the club.

The object of the Beta Club is to stimulate interest and to achieve better relationships and higher grades in the part of the students. As a strictly scholastic club, any student in senior high may become a member if their grades are acceptable. The qualities of leadership, character, and service are also necessary for a student to become a member. One of the high lights of being a Beta member is the attending of the Beta Convention in the spring. Last year the club sponsored a Beta Recognition Day, where the students in high school who had given their time and work to the school were recognized.

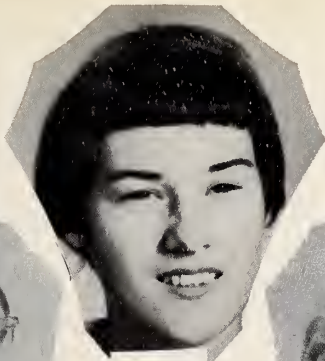

The president points out the meaning of the Beta symbol to the club members.

Sponsor, Miss Richardson, works diligently to improve the club.

Future Teachers of America

Sherrill Capps, President; and Miss Sumrell, Advisor; set up schedule for program and activities of F.T.A.

Carolyn Johnson, Secretary; and Faye Massengill, Treasurer; discuss budget for the year.

The Future Teachers Club seeks to encourage qualified students to become interested in teaching as a future vocation. The club is very active in its activities which include sponsoring American Education Week, the World Peace Contest, A Christmas Banquet, giving recognition to teachers and presenting a chapel program. Each member plans a program of interest to future teachers. The members are encouraged to observe teachers and to help with bulletin boards, chapel programs, and to assist in any way possible.

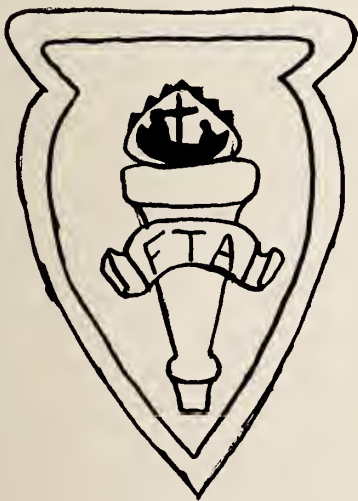

Rose Dixon, reporter, and Sherwood Davis, vice president, write up new reports. Vickie Chappell, librarian, keeps up-to-date information for all members.

One to grow on...

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.

For Kenly

Clayton high school girls, coached by James Hankins, defeated the Kenly girls 54-39 for the second time this season. The Clayton team took the opening tap to the floor for the first basket. Hankins was the big star in the attack as he dropped in 29 points. At halftime Kenly trailed by only four points, 25-21. Parham Lassiter played good defense for the Comets.

The Kenly high school girls of Coach Kirby won their second game of the season from the Blue Comets. The score at halftime was 29-13 and the final score was 54-36. Campbell and Davis led scoring for Kenly. Leading scorers for Clayton were Mary Anne with 15, Patsy with 14, Mary Ellen with 13, and Mary with 12.

The visitors made a ton Friday night of a non-conference game from the Clayton sextet.

The visitors in the boys' game saw the score tied 11 times. Blue Comet boys of Coach James Hankins took the lead at 13-11 and the battle was tight until late in the game when the Cary quint scored the last three points to break a 39-all tie.

The Cary boys used a tight zone defense on Clayton's Sherwood Davis, but he was still the game's top scorer with 18 points.

The girls ran up a 20-point lead in the first half and coasted to an easy 47-28 victory. Clayton's Coach Kirby led the scoring with 14 points.

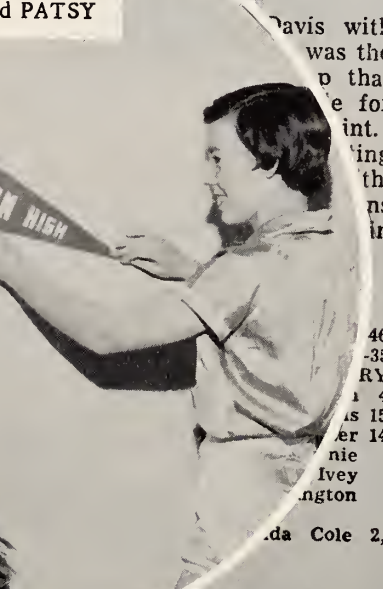

Early in the season the teams met the Clayton squad, the score being 52-39 in favor of Cary in the boys' game and 45-35 in favor of Clayton in the girls' game.

Defeat Cary; Quint Lo

The Clayton girls in their second game of the season broke the victory column Friday night with a 46-35 win over Cary. Clayton's Comet boys of Coach Hankins in the nightcap suffered a second loss, 52-49, in a close contest.

The non-conference double header was played at Cary.

Gwenda Cobb sank 19 points to lead the Clayton sextet of Coach Melvin Woodard to the victory in the opener. The female Comets behind two points at halftime, took the lead in the third quarter.

Four Oaks Quint Wins Over Clayton

The Four Oaks quint of Pat Henderson and a tight game edged the Clayton boys of James Hankins, 55-51, after the sextet game between the schools ended in a 54-all tie day night at Clayton.

The girls' game was late in the night because the referees fastidiously up and substitutes had obtained. The tie game and by ment of the Clayton girls allowed to stay in the game any overtime periods.

High scorer was Marjorie with 30 points. Cardin and Patsy with 25 points. Coach Melvin Woodard's girls.

The boys' game was throughout with the four-point margin for Four Oaks. In the final quarter Clayton's man Bennie Dean, who made 14 attempts from the floor, points. Top scorer for the boys was Edward Langdon with 12 points.

In a junior varsity game Four Oaks battled by Le 12, posted a 44 win over Clayton, paced by Dennis Johnson with eight points.

*I*t is with profound regret that we announce the death of the well-known and highly respected Senior class of the Clayton High School. The Senior class was one respected and loved by all who knew it and will be greatly missed in the social, athletic, and educational circles of the school and neighborhood. Its qualities of industry, idealism, and charm endeared it to all who had the pleasure of its acquaintance, and it will be sincerely mourned by faculty, classmates, and friends. Among the many documents and intellectual writings of the Senior class was found the following last will and testament to be read to the members of the Junior class:

- I, Jimmy Benson, leave my perfect papers in typing to Ed Jones.*
- I, Larry Benson, leave my muscular physique to Lynwood Hargis.*
- I, Wayne Benson, leave my title, "Greatest Heartbreaker," to Gene Justice.*
- I, Clarence Blackmon, leave my many unfinished love situations to Robert Youngblood.*
- I, Sherrill Capps, leave my school bus to Parham Cassiter.*
- I, Clarence Davis, leave my love of Clayton High School to Willis Harper.*
- I, Sherwood Davis, leave my ability to play in all sports to George Kloster.*
- I, Lewis Gower, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Waters to Carr Atkinson.*
- I, Earl Johnson, leave my reputation as a football player to Glenn Canady.*
- I, Bobby Norris, leave my position as Roving Reporter to Betty Beard.*
- I, Billy Parrish, leave my troubles and problems of love to Gene Wall.*
- I, Larry Parrish, leave my "catty" dress to Larkin Little.*

We Leave . . .

- I, Donald Pulley, leave my love for Junior girls to Jackie Worlds.*
- I, Lloyd Stephenson, leave my ability to make friends no matter where I go to anyone who changes schools during his senior year.*
- I, Patricia Adams, leave my ability to argue to Pat Sealey.*
- I, Gwenda Cobb, leave my charming smile to Helen Stephenson.*
- I, Carolyn Johnson, leave my ability to blush at any time to Jeanie Deese.*
- I, Mary Ellen Lee, leave my position on the basketball team to Helen Sasser.*
- I, Faye Massengill, leave my traits of punctuality and initiative to Billy Duncan.*
- I, Shirley Matthews, leave my dignified poise to Judy Godwin.*
- I, Sandra Mercer, leave my pony tail to Jonnie Jones.*
- I, Barbara Nappier, leave my changeable attitude toward football stars to Sylvia Snead.*
- I, Jo Anne Norris, leave my ability to be serene to Marie Jones.*
- I, Frances Pulley, leave my seat in English to Betty Jean Hill.*
- I, Peggy Turner, leave my ability to like many but love one to Vicki Chappell.*
- I, Joyce Underwood, leave my extrovert characteristics to Ann Mitchell.*
- I, Patsy Wall, leave my position as head majorette to Elaine Norton.*
- I, Patricia Whitman, leave my flirtatious ways to Joy Lassiter.*
- I, Judy Worley, leave my pleasing personality to Ruth Daughtry.*

The passing of the Senior class leaves a void in the intellectual circles of the school that will long be marked.

Attendance to the funeral services will be by invitation, and the obsequies will be held in the Clayton High School Auditorium on June 1, 1959.
